

Feedback Prep Worksheet

This worksheet will help you plan and practice your feedback message using the SBI model. You can use it alone or with a colleague for peer review.

SBI Model Framework

Situation: Describe when and where.

Behavior: Describe the observable behavior.

Impact: Explain how it affected you or others.

Example:

"In today's team check-in (S), when you spoke over me twice (B), it made it hard for me to share my updates and felt discouraging (I)."

Draft Your Feedback

Use the space below to write your feedback:

Language Boosters

Permission-based openers:

"Would it be okay if I shared an observation?"

Soft starters:

"I noticed...", "One thing I appreciated was..."

Reframe critical tones:

"Instead of saying 'You always...', try 'I've observed that...'"

Tone Check Questions

Does this focus on what the person did, not who they are?
Would I feel okay if someone gave me this kind of feedback?
Am I being clear and helpful in my message?

Review and Revise

Read it aloud. How does it sound?
Adjust for clarity and warmth.
