

ACTIVITY 3:

From Trigger to Response Plan

Step 1: Identify Your Pattern

When I feel triggered at work, I tend to:

- ☐ Speak quickly
- ☐ Defend myself
- ☐ Withdraw or shut down
- ☐ Over-explain
- ☐ Send messages too quickly
- ☐ Avoid the conversation
- ☐ Other:

Step 2: Identify Your Most Common Trigger

My most common emotional trigger at work is:

- ☐ Public criticism
- ☐ Tight deadlines
- ☐ Feeling excluded
- ☐ Miscommunication
- ☐ Perceived unfairness
- ☐ Sudden change
- ☐ Other:

ACTIVITY 3:

From Trigger to Response Plan

Step 3: Build Your Regulation Strategy

Next time this trigger happens, I will:

- ☐ Pause before responding
- ☐ Take one breath
- ☐ Ask a clarifying question
- ☐ Delay my response
- ☐ Name the emotion silently
- ☐ Request time to reflect

Write the exact sentence you will use:

Step 4: Consider the Impact

If I respond intentionally instead of reacting automatically, it may improve:

- ☐ Trust
- ☐ Team morale
- ☐ My credibility
- ☐ My clarity
- ☐ My leadership presence

One outcome I want to protect is:
